Something to Think About!

Funeral Luncheon Volunteers Needed

Ever thought about being a member of our funeral lunch team? There are a million small jobs that need doing by both men and women to support our parish families in their time of grief. Call Maudena at 495-2532 if you can help out in this fulfilling ministry!

Gospel Reflection

When people arrive at their parish church to celebrate Mass on Sunday morning, they are often distracted by many things. But the gospel reading reminds us of what Eucharist is all about. It helps us to focus on the Last Supper, the final Passover meal Jesus shared with his friends. There we hear him say those familiar and astounding words: "This is my body. This is my blood."

The breaking of the bread and pouring out of the wine remind us once again of how Jesus' body was broken on the cross and how his blood was spilled for us. Now we are his body on earth. And we are nourished by his Eucharistic presence among us.

- If you had a tape recording of your thoughts as you arrived for Mass today, what might be on it? Who or what helps you to get "plugged into" what is really happening in the celebration of the Eucharist?

- How would you describe the difference the Eucharist makes in your life? What can you do to help others appreciate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ?

INFANT BAPTISM PREPARATION

A Baptismal Preparation Meeting will be held in the Lower Sacristy on TUESDAY, JUNE 5 beginning at 7:00 PM. Those who wish to register for this meeting to have their child baptized are asked to call the parish office by Monday, June 4. Baptism Preparation is mandatory by Diocesan Policy.

NOTE: This is the last infant baptism preparation gathering until September 18.

ORDINARY TIME AFTER PENTECOST

Ordinary time provides a perfect canvas on which to portray how God works through us in daily life in our families, our work, our relationships with our neighbors, in our communities and in the world, in our care for creation, in our recreation and leisure activities.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) provides the norms for liturgical colors. During this season, you will see that the vestments are green for the Masses of Ordinary Time.

Rather than moving from season to season, in Ordinary Time we move simply from Sunday to Sunday. Each Sunday stands on its own, and is counted as the "Xth" Sunday after Pentecost. For example, next Sunday is the Tenth Sunday of Ordinary Time.

During this season it is proper to emphasize that we are called to live out the Gospel day by day, one day at a time, not only in the notable experiences of life, but also in the mundane.

This season emphasizes the church's daily and weekly walk with Christ. It is a great time to explore the meaning of Sunday as the Lord's Day. During Ordinary Time, we can help one another remember why Sunday is special and how we can commemorate it as a special day for individuals, families and a parish community.
