The Lord sends laborers to proclaim the kingdom.

The prophet Isaiah instructs us to rejoice because the Lord assures us he will extend prosperity and comfort. In Paul's Letter to the Galatians, he writes that the cross of Jesus Christ has brought about a new creation, one which will bring peace and mercy to those who follow him. Luke's Gospel tells of Christ appointing and sending seventy-two followers out in pairs – like lambs among wolves – with instructions on how to labor in the field and proclaim the kingdom of God. Jesus appointed, instructed and sent seventy-two disciples to proclaim the kingdom of God. With his authority, they were able to spread the Gospel message, and it continues today. For we, too, are called, appointed, instructed and sent with authority. We are sent to engage the world and proclaim the kingdom. Like the early disciples, we are not sent alone: we have the Church as mother, and each other as co-travelers on the journey.

Why RCIA?

Our lives are a journey to God until the day when we all join together in our eternal home and worship the Lord face-to-face. You are among friends. As we build community through our RCIA sessions, it becomes clear that we all have times of doubt, fear, and frustration. During RCIA, we come together to look at our lives in light of the Gospel so that we can embrace a fuller discipleship of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

There are many reasons people decide that they are interested in becoming a Catholic. It makes no difference if you have been raised in another denomination, have no church affiliation or experience or even if you were never baptized. You may have started out Catholic but never completed your initiation with the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is the process by which we welcome and prepare adults to enter the Catholic faith.

The RCIA process is sensitive to your needs before you make any commitment to the Catholic Church. The extent and the requirements of the process are adapted to your specific needs.

Is The Time Right For You? Why not make the time to come and see how God works in your life. Call the Parish Office at 472-3970 to see how we can welcome you into the Church.

Blessings to SOPHIE ST. MARTIN who celebrated First Eucharist last weekend. We hope you will be forever connected to His love, peace and blessings. May the happiness of this special occasion be with you always and may you feel the light of the Lord shining down upon you. Happy First Communion!

THANK YOU..... to all those who signed up to donate using pre-authorized banking or VISA/ Mastercard donations.

Electronic gifting is convenient, and ensures regular monthly offerings to help our Cathedral's ministry even when you are away. You will be providing a dependable flow of contributions, which increases the church's overall financial stability.

We need you more than ever! Summer is upon us and when people take holidays, collections dwindle. We will still be here when you get back, but our expenses still have to be met while you are away.

Please consider electronic gifting and/or making a larger than normal donation in the summer to help us cover our summer expenses.

Holy Land Wood Art— Coming this September!

The main income for the Christian community of Bethlehem—The Birth Place of Jesus—is selling their handcrafted olive wood religious items to the pilgrims who visit the area. The past few years have been extremely hard for the community as a result of declining tourism.
Some Christians responded by fleeing the Holy Land, and the absence of a living Christian community is very dangerous for the Holy Sites such as the Church of The Nativity. On September, 21 & 22, we will be having some of their beautiful art held for sale in an effort to strengthen the Christian presence in the Holy Land.
