Prot. No. 214/2024

April 4, 2024

SUBJECT: RELOCATION OF THE DIOCESAN CENTRE

Greetings!

On behalf of Bishop Thomas Dowd, may we begin by extending to everyone Easter blessings during this Easter season.

The time to move has arrived. The offices of the Diocesan Centre will be relocating to the new site this month.

Offices Temporarily Closed

Please note that the offices of the Diocesan Centre will be closed from April 15 to 26, 2024, to allow for staff and movers to pack, move and unpack, transfer IT infrastructure, set up new office services and all transfer needs.

Communications during the move

The telephone system may go offline during the move and service may be interrupted. The best way to reach any of the personnel of the Diocesan Centre during that time will be by email.
You will be notified as soon as possible when the phones are reconnected.

If an emergency occurs, please contact the following individuals by cell phone.
Monsignor Roch Martin, 705.470.5617
Monsignor J.-P. Jolicoeur, 705.688.8558
Ted Hargreaves, 705.665.6569

Correspondence during the move

All correspondence should continue to be sent to the current address until further notice:
Diocesan Centre
30, Ste. Anne Road, Sudbury ON P3C 5E1.

There will be a mail forwarding service in place with Canada Post.

The Diocesan Centre will have a separate municipal address than Holy Redeemer Parish.
The new official address of the Diocesan Centre will be communicated to you as soon as possible.

Bishop Dowd most sincerely thanks you for your understanding and patience during this time of necessary change.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Roch Martin
